

Timetable

Jan-March 2024

Together an Active Future are delighted to welcome you to our upcoming Leadership webinars and events...

When	What	Where	Content	Who
Thursday 11th January 2024 10-11am	Building Effective Networks	Online, Webinar	Building place based networks with a variety of partners is a key part of tackling structural inequality in a whole systems approach... but how do I do it, and where do I start? This webinar will cover the key principles of network building and share practical tips on how to start and grow those collaborative relationships	Ken Masser
Wednesday 7th February 2024 10-11am	Cinema Club - 3 Secrets of Resilient People	Lodge House	Resilience in the workplace is important to overcoming barriers with a positive outlook. Resilient expert Lucy Hone shares her three strategies that everyone can adopt in a very powerful and personal talk. Part of our Cinema Club series, we will discuss this TED Talk video and relate it back to your role and workplace.	Heath Brandwood & Beth Kay
Tuesday 20th - Thursday 22nd February 2024 9.30-4pm	Clifton Strengths Coaching Course	Lodge House	This 3-day coaching course is designed for leaders within the workplace who would like to understand and have confidence in their own unique strengths, support others to use their strengths to see and do things differently and build a workplace culture of focussing on what's strong, building on the personal assets within organisations, teams and the system.	Heath Brandwood & Beth Kay
Thursday 7th March 2024 9.30-4pm	CoL/Laboratory Leadership Conference	Impact Conference Centre	Aimed at leaders at all levels, the CoL/ Laboratory will provide the time and space to explore the leadership needed to tackle inequality. The day will blend a Discovery Zone, Deep Dive Workshops, Networking Spaces, and Inspirational Speakers and Stories to leave you feeling more informed and inspired in your role.	TaAF Team
Wednesday 13th March 2024 10-12pm	Ripple Effect Mapping for reflection, reporting and informing decision making	Online, Webinar	Ripple effect mapping can be a useful tool for teams to track intended and un-intended changes over time as part a developmental and growth mindset. You will leave this session with your own ripple effect map to show how a significant change has led to meaningful progress or success in your personal professional practice and ideas how to use ripple effect maps with your teams or organisations.	Emily Brady-Young
Tuesday 26th March 2024 9.30-12.30pm	Leading when you're not in charge	Online	This event is designed to provide practical help and support if you're trying to navigate your way through difficult issues and messy environments, by providing practical approaches that you can use straight away; and to provide a space for you to apply the approaches to real-time issues and plan for the future.	Debbie Sorkin

BOOK NOW

For more information contact team@taaf.co.uk

www.taaf.co.uk/leadership